Closer to the nature

Every day, everyone pays attention to the freshness of the food products purchased in stores.

We believe that the same iron rule applies to advertising sweets! That is why, we do everything to offer impeccable freshness of products that reach our customers every day.

How do we do it?

All chocolates are produced in cooperation with Barry Callebaut FINEST BELGIAN CHOCOLATE, thanks to which our products are characterized not only by excellent taste and composition, but also by the highest quality.

Offered caramel is a fully craft production! It's handmade without the addition of artificial flavors, colors or preservatives.

The labels of the offered products are clean and their compositions are shorter and shorter. As a result, we can offer certified vegan products, without dairy, gluten or artificial preservatives.

The chocolate is poured and the caramel is cooked only after the order by the customer.

This ensures you get the freshest product with the longest possible shelf life.

Product packaging are prepared in three specialized printing houses, thanks to which we can offer fast delivery!

Sweets are packed in personalized packa-ging immediately after their production.

The whole process from design to shipment takes place under one roof, so we have everything under strict control. The products also comply the highest standards of food production safety, confirmed by the international IFS Food certificate.

MOLDINGS

We are constantly working on the maximum reduction of plastic consumption in our packaging.

Where it is necessary due to the safety of a food product, we use one that is 80% recycled and 100% recyclable for reuse. Our product moldings are made of R-PET foil. What does it mean?

PET (polyethylene terephthalate) is currently one of the most commonly used packaging materials because it protects the product's properties as well as being lightweight, durable and transparent. Such packaging allows to maintain the high quality and properties of the stored product. PET packaging is made of the so-called primary raw material, i.e. obtained directly from crude oil fractions in an appropriate chemical process. One of the characteristics of PET is that it can be easily recycled, and because of the ease of processing and recovery, PET packaging is a valuable raw material. They can be easily transformed into bottles, t-shirts, sleeping bags and carpets or other articles.

R-PET, or recycled PET, is a popular, high-quality plastic suitable for contact with food, commonly used for the production of bottles and packaging. Importantly, after processing, it does not lose the properties of PET. It is safe, functional and helps to significantly reduce the production of new plastics.

Why is the use of R-PET plastic beneficial for the natural environment?

- limits the production of new material;
- reduces CO₂ emissions from 40 to 80%;
- recycling reduces water consumption in the production process (approx. 90%) and energy (approx. 80%);
- R-PET is a step towards a closed circular economy.
- the material is suitable for continuous recovery – materials and raw materials can remain in economic circulation as long as possible R-PET has a lower carbon footprint.

The effect of using R-PET packaging is also a significant reduction in greenhouse gas emissions!

COMPOSTABLE FOILS

Due to the strict rules regarding the safety of food products, foil is an indispensable material that we use. To minimize the consumption of plastic, we were one of the first on the market of advertising products to introduce a 100% compostable foil. In addition, we also offer our sweets in packaging in which we have reduced the use of foil by as much as 65%. How is this possible?

The specialized packaging foils we use, provide strong ecological support for the growing consumer demand for more environmentally friendly packaging. Most types of BIO foil are based in over 90% on renewable resources, i.e. wood pulp, and have certificates of compliance with European and American standards for packaging suitable for industrial composting. What besides wood pulp?

The foils offer a good barrier for gases, and the coatings can be customized to provide different degrees of barrier for moisture, depending on the needs of the packaged product.

The ideal end-use scenario for BIO foil? Industrial or home composting! Today you can order advertising sweets in BIO foil and make a good gesture not only for your palate, but also for our planet!

- wood pulp from which BIO foil is produced comes from FSC-certified sources;
- compostable in a home composter;
- complete security of your advertising product.
